

Welcome to Carre's

Thankyou for taking the time to visit our website and considering joining us at Carre's

I am sorry not to be able to meet all of you in person at this stage though I look forward to seeing many of you during our Open Week tours. Welcoming prospective parents/carers and students into Carre's Grammar School is one of my favourite parts of my role. I am hugely proud of our students and they are consistently the very best advert for the school and all it has to offer.

I hope that this presentation helps give you a flavour of the school and its ethos and answers any questions that you may have. Please do come to visit the school if you can and do not hesitate to contact us if you would like further information.

- What are the school's ethos and values?
- What is the school's reputation?
- How is this school different from other local schools?
- What are the class sizes?
- What extra-curricular opportunities does the school offer?
- How does the school support students with special educational needs and disability?
- What is the physical environment and facilities like?
- What are the school's expectations for students
- And you will have several of your own.....!

What makes Carre's stand out?

Joy and Curiosity

Learning is central to everything we do. We learn from the students and our colleagues every day

Our time at school is challenging, rewarding and fun - for students and staff.

We look forward to each day.

What makes Carre's stand out?

Good mental health

We are a caring and stable environment and we are a small school by secondary standard which allows us to develop explicit and shared values

- Honesty
- Integrity
- Care
- Respect for each other, the property and the community
- Tolerance of perspectives and cultures

We develop in the young people:

- Resilience-the ability to cope and accept that we can fail but learn from it
- Resourcefulness-equipping the students with the tools for lifelong learning and creativity
- Reflection-we seek continuous improvement
- Responsibility – There are many opportunities for student leadership

We build upon existing partnership between home and school and encourage students to develop the confidence to take risks necessary for learning.

We aim to remove the barriers to learning, such as a lack of self-esteem, confidence or motivation, by supporting the student
