

Mutual Respect

Core Concept:

- Treat others as you want to be treated
- Respect for each other
- Working together

Mutual Respect in English:

- We respect others' views in class discussion
- We consider how the characters authors construct in texts may have different experiences to our own and show appreciation for these differences

The Rule of Law

Core Concept:

- Understanding rules and why they are important
- Following rules to develop order

The Rule of Law in English:

- We understand the importance of following rules in spelling, punctuation and grammar so that communication is clear
- We understand the need for standard English as a method of universally understood communication
- We understand the conventions of different non – fiction text types (such as letters, articles and reports) and use these conventions in our own writing

British Values in English

Tolerance of Different Faiths and Beliefs

Core Concept:

- Learning about different faiths and cultures
- Listen to other viewpoints
- Learning about diversity

Tolerance of Different Faiths and Beliefs in English:

- We read texts (novels, play, poetry and non fiction) created by and concerning the experience of people from different cultures. We write about the experience of the people or characters in these texts with sympathy
- We consider the context of the author of a text and how their different beliefs or faith might influence the text

Democracy

Core Concept:

- Making decisions together
- The right to an opinion/voice

Democracy in English:

- We consider how democracy is presented in the texts that we read and look for how different political systems are presented
- We involve everyone in class discussion and ensure that everyone has the right to a view

Individual Liberty

Core Concept:

- Freedom of speech for all
- The right to make our own choices

Individual Liberty in English:

- We understand the importance of the creative process in English composition
- We appreciate that Literary critics might interpret texts in different ways
- We study non –fiction texts in which authors are expressing their personal views about issues

